We hope you enjoy the 2026 Seattle Mariners Yearbook! The 2026 book is filled with award-winning photography to give you an inside look at our players and coaching staff, our beautiful home field T-Mobile Park, and our organization.

The Mariners enter the 2026 season still riding the momentum of last season's deep playoff run and hungry to finish the job this year. In the last five years (2021-2025), Seattle has the third-most wins in the American League.

Mariners Hall of Famer Dan Wilson helped lead the team to Game 7 of the American League Championship Series in his first full season as Manager of the club last year, with the club reflecting his passion for focusing on each night's game as the most important game of the year.

The 2026 club may be the most complete in team history.

All five members of the elite starting pitching staff return, healthy and hungry for a big season. Four of the five -- Luis Castillo, Logan Gilbert, George Kirby, and Bryan Woo – have represented Seattle in the All-Star Game, and Bryce Miller is focused on joining the crowd.

The starters are backed-up by a deep, experienced bullpen led by All-Star closer Andres Munoz. Munoz is surrounded talented teammates, including off-season addition Jose A. Ferrer and 2025 revelation Gabe Speier. Few teams can match the position player depth, talent and flexibility of the Mariners.

Cal Raleigh posted one of the best season's by a catcher in Major League Baseball history in 2025, becoming the first catcher and switch-hitter with 60 home runs...and he added a family-affair Home Run Derby title as a bonus.

With the infield corners manned by Josh Naylor and newcomer Brendan Donovan, and Seattle's longest tenured player, and former Gold Glove winner, J.P. Crawford at shortstop and second baseman Cole Young looking to build on his rookie season Seattle boasts a rock-solid infield.

Meanwhile, Julio Rodríguez put up his second 30-30 season (with 30 steals and 32 home runs), becoming the first player in Major League Baseball history to collect at least 20 homers and 20 steals in each of their first four seasons. Julio is flanked in the outfield by Victor Robles and Randy Arozarena, providing Seattle fans a chance to watch what is clearly one of the most dynamic outfields in baseball.

The 2025 season is going to be a great year, but the future is bright as well, as Jerry Dipoto, Justin Hollander and the scouting and player development staffs have assembled a consensus top farm system, stacked with prospects pushing to join the big club.

It's going to be an exciting year off the field as well. We've expanded our Value Menu (36 items for fans of all ages) and a full third of our schedule has a get-in price of under $12! We'll be celebrating our 50th Season all year long, highlighted by the an amazing night on Aug. 8 when we welcome our Top-50 Players of our first half century back to T-Mobile Park. T-Mobile Park takes pride in its variety of local food options including MOTO Pizza, Marination, Ivar's, Ballard Pizza, Sumo Dog, Great State Burger, Salt and Straw and more. In addition to Mariners baseball, T-Mobile Park is Seattle's summer home for concerts, commencements and community gatherings.

The 2026 season is going to be a blast, and we're looking forward to sharing it all with you.

The Fallen Officer Memorial Project is a program funded by the Seattle Police Foundation established in 2022 to show the Seattle Police Department's commitment to always remember and honor its fallen officers.

The project installs granite badges in special locations to honor Seattle Police Department officers who lost their lives in service to our community. These locations provide a sense of closure for fellow officers, families, and the community, allowing them to grieve and remember the officer's service.

The Foundation supports the department in many ways, but few are as meaningful and impactful as this one. To support this effort, use the QR code to donate.

"The Foundation works to improve public safety and strengthen community ties by strategically engaging with SPD officers and civilian staff. Through collaborative partnerships with local stakeholders and philanthropic donors, the Foundation invests in innovative programs, specialized equipment, and community outreach efforts designed to build trust and ensure a safer Seattle.

SEATTLE POLICE FOUNDATION

Partnership for a Safe Seattle

"As a retired Seattle Police Captain and second-generation SPD Officer, I have seen the positive impact public safety initiatives have in our neighborhoods and city overall. I also understand the challenges concerning officer recruitment and retention, and budget shortfalls. I support the Foundation because of the investments it makes in technology, employee training, and officer wellness."

Since 2002 the Seattle Police Foundation (SPF) has championed public safety in Seattle. SPF is committed to supporting and strengthening the work of the Seattle Police Department (SPD) through philanthropy, advocacy, and building strong community partnerships.

The Foundation was founded to help SPD cultivate meaningful relationships with the community, support employee development, promote officer recognition, and help provide supplemental funding to advance the mission and goals of the Department.

SPF also provides funding to officers and civilian staff through program grants that emphasize community building, crime prevention, officer wellness, and support to children and families in need.

JEWISH WASHINGTON BASEBALL HISTORY

We proudly honor the many Jewish individuals whose passion and leadership shaped the baseball legacy: players, team owners, broadcasters, writers, and announcers.

CHARLES KAPNER

From a popcorn-box baseball card at Sick's Stadium to one of the most important collections of Seattle baseball history, Charles Kapner has spent a lifetime preserving the stories behind the game. His deep roots from the early 1900s to modern day reflect what the WSJHS does best: collecting memories, preserving history, and keeping Seattle's stories in play.

2026 MARINERS MINOR LEAGUES

MINOR LEAGUE PLAYERS TO WATCH

INF FELNIN CELESTEN

AGE: 20
BORN: 9-15-05 in Guaymate, DR
B/T: S/R HEIGHT: 6-1 WEIGHT: 175
ACQUIRED: Signed as an international free agent on Jan. 15, 2023.

Celesten has battled injuries during his young minor league career, but when he has been on the field, he has been a dynamic player. In 136 minor league games over the past 3 seasons, he is batting .291 (159x546) with 26 stolen bases and a .785 OPS.

INF COLT EMERSON

AGE: 20
BORN: 7-20-05 in Zanesville, OH
B/T: L/R HEIGHT: 6-0 WEIGHT: 195
ACQUIRED: Selected in the 1st round (22nd overall) of the 2023 MLB First-Year Player Draft out of John Glenn High School (OH).

Emerson was Seattle's first of three first round picks in the 2023 MLB First-Year Player Draft, and has quickly ascended to the top prospect in the Mariners system and among the best across baseball. After injuries limited him to just 70 games in 2024, he played 130 games in 2025 across 3 minor league levels, finishing the year with a outstanding cameo with Triple-A Tacoma. In 6 games with the Rainiers the 20-year-old hit .364 (8x22) with 2 homers and a 1.172 OPS in 6 games.

OF JONNY FARMELO

AGE: 21
BORN: 9-9-04 in Centreville, VA
B/T: L/R HEIGHT: 6-2 WEIGHT: 205
ACQUIRED: Selected in the 1st round (29th overall) of the 2023 MLB First-Year Player Draft out of Westfield High School (VA).

Farmelo was the second of the Mariners three first round picks in the 2023 MLB First-Year Player Draft, following fellow top prospect Colt Emerson. Farmelo was looking every bit like a five tool centerfielder before an ACL tear ended his 2024 season. He returned from injury in 2025 and appeared in 29 games with High-A Everett and 23 games with Peoria in the Arizona Fall League, again looking like the dynamic player he was before the injury.

Montes equals his big personality with big power. In 374 career minor league games, he has blasted 76 home runs, including belting 32 in 2025, which was tied for the most among all minor leaguers. In 374 career minor league games, Montes is a .273 hitter, getting on base at a .393 clip and slugging .518 for a .911 OPS.

RHP RYAN SLOAN

Sloan was a highly touted right-hander coming out of York Community High School (IL), ranked 19th overall in the 2024 MLB Draft by MLB Pipeline. The Mariners were able to sign the 6-foot-5 Illinois native after selecting him in the 2nd round (55th overall). In his first professional season in 2025, Sloan spent the majority of his season dominating hitters in the California League, before a brief 3-start stint in High-A Everett to finish the season. Between the two stops, Sloan held a 3.73 ERA (34 ER, 82.0 IP) with 90 strikeouts, a 1.15 WHIP and just 15 walks.

C LUKE STEVENSON

AGE: 21
BORN: 7-22-04 in Flemington, NJ
B/T: L-R HEIGHT: 6-1 WEIGHT: 200
ACQUIRED: Selected in the 1st round (35th overall) of the 2025 MLB First-Year Player Draft out of the University of North Carolina

Stevenson was selected 35th overall in the 2025 MLB Draft by Seattle and immediately made an impact in a brief stint with Modesto to end the 2025 season. In 22 games with the Nuts, he hit .280 (21x75) with a .860 OPS, while walking more than he struck out (23 walks, 19 strikeouts). In his two seasons at the University of North Carolina, he stood out as an excellent defensive catcher, while also clubbing 33 home runs with a .960 OPS.

Commitment to the Community

Serving our communities has always been a pillar of the Seattle Mariners mission.

We use our unique voice, trusted partnerships, and the inspirational power of baseball to ensure that everyone in our region can thrive. Baseball is about working together as a team to become better and stronger every day, and we bring this same spirit to our engagement with communities throughout the Pacific Northwest. Since the Mariners nonprofit foundation was established in 1991, more than $32 million has been raised to primarily benefit youth-oriented community service programs, and we focus our efforts in three areas:

1 Ensuring Access to Baseball and Softball For All

2 Advancing Inclusion and Opportunity

3 Making Our Hometown More Healthy and Vibrant

1 ENSURING ACCESS TO BASEBALL AND SOFTBALL FOR ALL

The Foundation funds efforts to make baseball and softball more accessible to all young people in our region. Our vision is barrier free baseball and softball at every age and stage. This includes Mariners-sponsored initiatives and community partnerships, like:

- On BASE (Baseball And Softball Everywhere) programs such as the Equipment Donation Grant, youth instructional camps, and coaches clinics
- Hometown Nine youth baseball and softball advanced development & leadership program
- No-cost camps and clinics hosted in partnership with Mariners Training Centers across the Mariners 5-state region
- Nike RBI partnerships with Baseball Beyond Borders in Washington, Friends of Baseball in Oregon, and Gamers Alaska

What we've accomplished so far:

- Graduated the first class to complete our first full Hometown Nine cohort from 8th-12th grade and had our first D1 and D2 Commits from the program
- Provided support to Nike RBI programs in AK, OR, and WA to grow the number of teams to 9 representing the Mariners at the Nike RBI West Regional, hosted in the Seattle area for the third year in a row, and held the second annual Skills Showcase at T-Mobile Park for RBI participants
- Hosted the most Play Ball Weekend events in MLB, including activations in WA, OR, AK, ID, MT and with 3 of our MiLB affiliates, providing youth with opportunities to play
- Brought baseball & softball to more than 4,700 kids across the Pacific Northwest as part of free youth camps and clinics
- Provided complimentary tickets to more than 150 different nonprofit organizations through the MLB Commissioner's Community Initiative, providing access for children and adults that might not otherwise have the opportunity to attend an MLB game

Bryan Woo and Logan Gilbert participate in a reverse signing with kids from Seattle Children's Hospital

2 ADVANCING INCLUSION AND OPPORTUNITY

The Mariners work to support all people in their right to succeed in school, work, and life. We are joined in these efforts by our Community Impact Grant partners, which include beneficiaries such as:

- King County Play Equity Coalition
- Hummingbird Indigenous Family Services
- Urban League Young Professionals
- Southeast Youth & Family Services
- UW Foster School of Business Minority Business Executive Program
- Asian Counseling and Referral Service

What we've accomplished and highlights from 2025:

- Completed our 5-year, $1 million pledge one year early to organizations advancing equity and justice, including the inaugural funding for the Seattle Foundation's Fund for Inclusive Recovery supporting the innovative work of dozens of nonprofits
- Invested in the future of 500 first-generation college students, students of color, and historically underserved students to receive flexible funding in support of their degrees through the ongoing support of the Seattle Colleges Stay in the Game scholarships
- Continued multi-year funding through the All-Star Legacy Initiative to the UWKC Bridge to Finish program, supporting Shoreline Community College's Benefits Hub with resources for financial support, meals, transportation, and/or housing assistance to remove barriers to degree completion
- Provided a presenting sponsorship and in-kind support to Friends of the Children's Friendsgiving event, benefitting local youth served by the organization during a night of gratitude and togetherness

SEATTLE MARINERS FOUNDATION

Mariners Care, the Seattle Mariners non-profit foundation, strives to use their voice, trusted partnerships, and the inspirational power of baseball to ensure everyone in our region has the opportunity to thrive. Since 1991, when Mariners Care was established, the nonprofit has helped raise over $30 million to primarily benefit youth-oriented community service programs.

JOHN STANTON
Chairman & Managing Partner

John Stanton is the Mariners Chairman & Managing Partner. He was named Chairman on Aug. 19, 2016, and has served in that role since. Stanton joined the Mariners ownership group in December of 2000, and became a member of the Board of Directors in 2016.

Stanton consistently leads the organization with a focus on the Mariners Mission: We are dedicated to winning championships, creating unforgettable experiences and serving our communities.

Born in Seattle and raised in Bellevue, WA, Stanton is considered a wireless industry pioneer, co-founding three national wireless operators in the United States over the past four decades.

He is currently Chairman of the Trilogy Partnerships, a private investment firm, and serves on the boards of the Microsoft Corporation and Costco Wholesale Corporation. He is Chairman of Year Up of Puget Sound (a non-profit program for youth), and a member of the board of the Institute for Health Metrics and Evaluation, after previously serving as chair (or co-chair) of the boards of Whitman College, the Business Partnership for Early Learning, the United Way of King County campaign, the Washington Roundtable and the Regional Transportation Commission.

John and his wife Terry Gillespie also own interests in the Tacoma Rainiers (Pacific Coast League) and in the Walla Walla Sweets of the West Coast Collegiate Baseball League. He has been active in youth baseball in the area for over 30 years.

John earned a B.A. from Whitman College (Walla Walla, WA) and an MBA from Harvard Business School. John and Terry have two adult sons.

HOWARD LINCOLN
Chairman Emeritus

A key player in the formation of the ownership group that saved the Mariners for Seattle in 1992, Howard Lincoln served as Chairman and Chief Executive Officer from Sept. 27, 1999 to Aug. 19, 2016, when he was named Chairman Emeritus. His service was recognized with the Seattle Mariners Franchise Achievement Award in 2016. Lincoln continues as a member of the board of directors.

On Feb. 14, 2000 Lincoln retired from his position as chairman of Nintendo of America, Inc. to devote his full efforts to the Mariners. Lincoln joined Nintendo as its senior vice president and general counsel in January 1983. In February 1994, he was elected to the board of Nintendo of America, Inc. and appointed chairman of the company.

Philanthropy plays an important role in Lincoln's life. In addition to his strong support of the Mariners Foundation, he is a former chairman of the Children's Hospital Foundation. He was the Campaign Chair of United Way of King County's 2003/04 Annual Campaign. Lincoln is a board member of The Washington Roundtable.

Lincoln is a graduate of the University of California at Berkeley, and holds a law degree from Boalt Hall, the University of California School of Law. Following graduation from law school, Lincoln served as a Lieutenant in the U.S. Navy Judge Advocate General's Corps from 1966 to 1970. He practiced law in Seattle from 1970 to 1983. He and his wife, Grace, reside on Mercer Island. Their son, Brad, and his wife, Kim, have two children: Ethan and Benjamin.

JOHN ELLIS
Chairman Emeritus

A life-long resident of the Seattle area, John Ellis led the efforts to keep Major League Baseball in the Pacific Northwest. Upon transfer of the Mariners franchise to the new ownership group, Ellis became its first chairman and CEO, serving from June 29, 1992 until September 27, 1999, when he was named Chairman Emeritus. Ellis continues as a member of the Mariners Board of Directors.

During the seven full seasons of his tenure, the Mariners only finished below .500 once, while winning two Division titles and narrowly missing a third. Community and fan support improved enormously – attendance grew from 1,651,398 in 1992 to 3,507,975 in 2001. The greatest accomplishment under his leadership was the construction of our world-class ballpark, T-Mobile Park.

His service was recognized with the Seattle Mariners Franchise Achievement Award in 2016.

Ellis has served variously on the MLB Executive Council, the International, Ownership and Compensation & Finance Committee and he chaired the Baseball Endowment Limited Partnership (BELP) Committee.

John started his career as a lawyer with Perkins Coie in 1953 (where he is now of counsel). He then joined Puget Sound Power & Light Company (now Puget Sound Energy) in 1970, where he served variously as President, C.E.O. and Chairman until his retirement in 1993. During his utility career he served nationally as Chair of the Edison Electric Institute, and the Electric Power Research Institute.

Although a loyal Husky, he was also Chair of the Board of Regents of Washington State University and Seattle University, uniquely at the same time. He has 4 children and 8 grandchildren – all Mariners fans.

MARINERS EXECUTIVES

JERRY DIPOTO III
President, Baseball Operations

Jerry Dipoto is in his 11th full season with the Mariners after he was hired on Sept. 28, 2015. Dipoto was promoted to President, Baseball Operations on Sept. 1, 2021, and is the ninth full-time head of baseball operations in Mariners history.

In 2025, the Mariners went 90-72 and won the American League West Division for the first time since 2001. Seattle defeated the Detroit Tigers in the ALDS, 3 games to 2, and came within 1 game of winning an AL pennant for the first time in franchise history, narrowly falling to the Toronto Blue Jays in the ALCS, 4 to 3.

Following the 2025 season, Dipoto was named Baseball America's Executive of the Year.

Since Dipoto took over in 2016, the Mariners have a 791-727 record, 6th-best record in the American League. Since 2021, Seattle is 443-367 in the regular season, the 3rd-best record in the AL behind only Houston (466-343) and the Yankees (461-349).

Seattle has regularly boasted a consensus top farm system since Dipoto took the reins, including a #1 ranked system by Baseball America and The Athletic.

Following the 2022 season in which the Mariners went 90-72 and made it to the Postseason, while also ranking as a top farm system, Seattle was named Baseball America's Organization of the Year, the first time the Mariners were crowned with that award.

In his 26th season as a baseball executive, and his 15th as a General Manager/President of Baseball Ops, Jerry got his start immediately after retiring as a player in 2001. He was a special assistant for the Colorado Rockies (2001-02), followed by two seasons working in the scouting department for the Boston Red Sox (2003-04). He returned to the Rockies as the Director of Player Personnel (2005) and then moved to the Arizona organization as Vice President of Player Personnel (2006-10) and was appointed the Diamondbacks interim General Manager on July 1, 2010. He spent the 2011 season as the D-Backs Sr. VP of Scouting and Player Development.

Dipoto appeared in 390 Major League games, all in relief, with Cleveland (1993-94), the New York Mets (1995-96) and Colorado Rockies (1997-2000). A right-handed pitcher, he compiled a career 27-24 record with 49 saves and a 4.05 ERA prior to retiring during Spring Training in 2001 with a bulging disc in his neck. He was originally selected by Cleveland in the 3rd round of the 1989 June Draft out of Virginia Commonwealth University (Richmond, VA).

Jerry and his wife, Tamie, reside in Mercer Island, WA. They have two daughters: Taylor (husband Andrew) and Jordan (husband Osmond), one son, Jonah (wife Lauren) and one grandson.

KEVIN MARTINEZ
President, Business Operations

Kevin Martinez enters his second season since being named Mariners President of Business Operations on Oct. 4, 2024. He is responsible for all aspects of the Mariners business operations, overseeing every branch of the organization with the exception of Baseball Operations, which is led by Jerry Dipoto. Kevin has been a pivotal figure in the Mariners organization for parts of four decades. Throughout his career, Kevin has been committed to providing the best and most accessible fan experience in sports at T-Mobile Park.

In his role, he remains focused on that commitment as well as developing new ways for fans to experience Mariners baseball beyond the ballpark. Martinez has played an integral part in shaping the Mariners brand for over three decades, overseeing marketing, advertising, social media, digital content creation, research, in-park entertainment and special events, as well as directing the club's communications departments, including broadcasting, baseball and brand communications. Martinez directed the club's marketing efforts in 2001 and 2002 when the Mariners led Major League Baseball in home attendance, eclipsing 3.5 million fans in each of those seasons.

Under his leadership, the Mariners have created some of the most innovative and decorated marketing concepts in all of sports, including award-winning advertising campaigns and memorable promotions like "Turn Ahead the Clock Night" and "Buhner Buzz Cut Night." In addition, events and programs like FanFest, Opening Week Warm-Up, Mariners Street Fleet, Kids Club and others have provided fans with incredible memories while fostering a deeper connection with the organization.

Kevin has also designed and led all 11 of the Mariners Hall of Fame inductions and was instrumental in the creation and placement of statues honoring Dave Niehaus, Ken Griffey Jr. and Edgar Martinez. The 2026 season will be Kevin's 36th season with the Mariners. He spent seven seasons (2018-24) as the Mariners Senior Vice President of Marketing & Communications after being promoted on Nov. 9, 2017. Martinez was originally hired as the club's Promotions Manager in 1990 and was promoted to Director of Promotions in 1993. Kevin was the Boston Celtics Director of Promotions & Special Events from 1994- 96; responsibilities included planning and executing promotions and marketing for the final season in Boston Garden and the Inaugural Season in the FleetCenter, now the TD Garden. Martinez returned to the Mariners in 1996 as Director of Marketing and was promoted to Vice President of Marketing in Dec. 2001. Prior to joining the Mariners, Kevin worked for the ABC Television Network in New York.

A native of Edison, New Jersey, Martinez graduated from the S.I. Newhouse School of Public Communications at Syracuse University.

WINNING IS EVERYTHING TO THESE MARINERS

This year's ballclub has its sights set on reaching the World Series – and winning it

By Jordan Stone

A year after one of the most successful seasons in Seattle Mariners history, the message permeating around the Mariners clubhouse has been clear and consistent – we are not satisfied.

"We're setting the standard higher and our expectations higher," All-Star catcher Cal Raleigh said. "We want to be a perennial team. We want to be there every year and competing for a World Series."

That sentiment has been echoed by his teammates.

"I think [with] this team, based on what we did last year, and how far we went last year, that's the standard now," Josh Naylor said.

"It was a really cool experience in seeing all of us there and knowing that we belong there," Logan Gilbert said. "We are even better this year. The expectations are there where it should be."

Last season saw some of the greatest moments in franchise history, a 60 home run-hitting catcher, five All-Stars, a thrilling 15-inning winner-take-all Game 5—and perhaps the most crushing defeat in club history in Game 7 of the American League Championship Series.

That defeat has fueled the competitive fire, driving the Mariners to work harder to not experience the pain of falling short again.

"Obviously, we're all hurt from last year," Raleigh said. "Take that and use it as fuel for this upcoming year."

It's not just the pain of defeat the Mariners took away from the longest Postseason run in team history last year. They also reflected on the positives, the experience of playing Postseason baseball and coming close to realizing their goal.

> "I think [with] this team, based on what we did last year, and how far we went last year, THAT'S THE STANDARD NOW

"I feel like I turned to the positive things of it. I learned a lot from the playoffs. I feel like I focus a lot more on those lessons," Julio Rodríguez said. "As a team we should be looking forward, especially after experiencing playoff baseball and getting that rush of it. It's addicting, to be honest."

The preparation to surpass the achievements of last year's squad started long before the team reported to their Spring Training facility in Peoria, Arizona.

It started in the offseason, re-signing Naylor to a 5-year contract, acquiring left-handed flamethrower José A. Ferrer to bolster the bullpen, signing veteran Rob Refsnyder and acquiring All-Star infielder Brendan Donovan in a trade with the Cardinals.

Those players understand that this team has high aspirations and expectations, and the new additions are eagerly awaiting the opportunity to contribute to meet those goals.

"I'm going to go out there and give it my all," Ferrer said. "I'm going to go out there and give the best that I can to get this team a World Series."

Aside from the new faces, the Mariners return their core that helped them get within a game of reaching the World Series. All-Star starting pitcher Bryan Woo, who anchored the rotation in 2025, is joined by Gilbert, Bryce Miller, George Kirby and Luis Castillo. Gabe Speier, Matt Brash, Eduard Bazardo and All-Star closer Andrés Muñoz return as key pieces in the Mariners bullpen.

Raleigh, who is coming off a historic season that saw him hit 60 home runs and finish 2nd in American League MVP voting, will anchor the Mariners lineup alongside Rodríguez, Naylor, Donovan, J.P. Crawford and Randy Arozarena.

Once the team did report to Spring Training, it was with a singular focus – doing whatever it takes to prepare to win a World Series.

"Do everything you can to be a little bit better than you were yesterday, to get to that World Series," Naylor said. "Because what you do in March, April, May is what is going to dictate September [and] October."

They don't expect it to be easy.

"Nothing in baseball is easy, but what I know for sure is as a team we have a better understanding of who we are and all the things we have to do and sacrifice to get there," Rodríguez said. "To get there, there is a price to pay. That has to be the focus and preparation."

That focus and preparation has been a staple of the Mariners philosophy the past few seasons.

"You can't get to a World Series with any kind of shortcut," Manager Dan Wilson said.

As the team journeys through its 2026 season, no shortcuts will be taken in search of their ultimate goal.

"We have to go above and beyond now. We have to do everything we can do get to that World Series and win it," Naylor said. "It's that mentality here, winning is everything."

King Félix was one of the most feared pitchers of his generation. A true workhorse, Félix played his entire 15-year career in Seattle. He made his Major League debut on August 4, 2005 at the age of 19 years and 118 days, the youngest pitcher to start his debut since 1969. He was the 2010 American League Cy Young Award winner and a top-5 finisher four times (2nd in 2009 and 2014 and 4th in 2012), a 6-time All-Star (including starting the 2014 All-Star Game in Minnesota), and a 2-time AL ERA leader (2010 and 2014). He made a franchise-record 11 Opening Day starts. He has recorded a 4-strikeout inning (June 3, 2010 vs. Minnesota Twins), an Immaculate Inning (June 17, 2008 vs. Miami Marlins) and a grand slam (June 23, 2008 vs. New York Mets). He threw the 23rd perfect game in MLB history on August 15, 2012 vs. Tampa Bay Rays, the first in Mariners history. He is the only pitcher in MLB history to record 16-consecutive starts of at least 7.0 innings pitched while allowing 2 runs or fewer (May 18-August 11, 2014).

The face of the Mariners franchise for more than a decade, Hernández finished his career as the Mariners all-time leader in strikeouts (2,524), wins (169), starts (418) and innings pitched (2729.2), while his ERA (3.42) is tied for the franchise best. There is no better example of King Félix's impact on Seattle, than the dedicated fans of the "Kings Court", who would fill the left field stands with gold shirts and "K" cards, their cheers reverberating around the stadium.

> "Many [Hall of Fame] voters rely on the qualification that a player must be the most dominant at their position for a decade. HERNÁNDEZ WAS THAT PITCHER.

STATUES

Ken Griffey Jr. Location: Corner of Edgar Martinez Drive and Dave Niehaus Way, outside Home Plate Gate. Anyone who has ever seen a Ken Griffey Jr. at-bat will instantly recognize the pose. Left arm across his chest, a glossy, black bat trailing behind in his right hand, eyes skyward, tracking the path of a just-hit baseball as it heads over the fence for another home run. The 7-foot cast bronze statue on a 4-foot tall granite base, by artist Lou Cella (who also created the Dave Niehaus statue), captures the power and fluid motion of the National Baseball Hall of Famer's iconic swing. Edgar Martinez Location: On the South side of T-Mobile Park on Edgar Martinez Drive. During his Hall of Fame career, Martinez hit 521 doubles for the Mariners, including seven (7) in the post season, none bigger than the one to Mariner's fans as "The Double". The statue, created by Lou Cella, commemorates the "The Double", which sent Ken Griffey Jr. and Joey Cora home, resulting in a 6-5 win against the New York Yankees in Game 5 of the American League Division Series, ultimately sending the Mariners to the American League Championship Series. Dave Niehaus Location: Main Level at SEC 105. The statue, sculpted by Lou Cella, has many subtle touches, including a tie from Dave's collection (handpicked by wife Marilyn and daughter Greta) and a scorebook open to Game 5 of the American League Division Series game against the Yankees (with Dave's actual notes from the game). The railing behind the statue, designed by Creo Industrial Arts of Everett, also features several of Dave's unforgettable phrases. Guests are encouraged to bring their camera and snap a photo with the legendary Mariners broadcaster and beloved Hall of Famer. 2001 Commemorative Statue Location: Centerfield Plaza. On September 3rd of 2026, this new statue featuring Mike Cameron and Mark McLemore in their iconic moment on September 19, 2001, raising the American flag will be unveiled inside T-Mobile Park. This statue is meant to commemorate the Mariners 2001 season with 116 wins as well as honor the 25th anniversary of the tragic events on September 11th.

THE BIG UNIT

In 2026, the Mariners will retire Randy Johnson's number 51. "The Big Unit" pitched with Seattle for 10 seasons (1989-98) and is often considered one of the greatest pitchers of his generation and all-time. He recorded 130 wins and 2,162 strikeouts in a Mariners uniform, helping them to their first-ever Postseason appearance in 1995. Randy will join Ichiro Suzuki as Mariners to have their iconic number 51 retired.
